

Late 17c. stone cottage of 2 storeys and two bays, with external chimney, stair turret and bread oven, end entrance.

Gabled roof, clasped purlin. Diamond mullioned window, now blocked, in hearth room. Spine beam has rounded ends. Service/Parlour spine beam is chamfered and stopped. Hearth may have been added. Partition wall has square panel framing. Rough arched tie beam. Raking Queen struts. Ceiling levels altered.

Walls of random Bargate stone, galleted, with brick quoins. S. end rendered.

18c. addition with 'corner' hearth.

VIEW FROM SOUTH WEST

Caroline M. Martin 9/80