Late 16 C. two bay timber framed house with smoke hood and end lean-to built up. The adjoining house, "Hawthorn Cottage" was an added parlour.

Entrance beside smoke hood, into which a brick chimney was built. Whether smoke hood was original is not known, but there is no note of black rafters over the hearth room.

Hearth room joists chamfered with lamb's tongue stops. Timber framed with straight up braces.

Bedroom over Service Room had diamond window mullions.
